Why did Uzbekneftegaz launch a drilling control center?

Uzbekneftegaz, state-owned holding company of Uzbekistan's oil and gas industry, launched the Drilling Control Center to revolutionize drilling operations across Uzbekistan, cutting down on the duration and costs associated with well construction, as reported by the company's press service on May 15.

How many wells are monitored in Uzbekistan?

Currently, the Drilling Control Center provides 24/7 monitoring of 23 wells across six fields in Uzbekistan. The fields include Dengizkul, Zevarda, Yangi Tegirmon, Shurtan, Lower Eastern Berdak, and Lower Surgil, many of which are located in remote areas.

Should oilfield service providers consider Uzbekistan's market as a strategic decision-making tool?

This product could be an important strategic decision-making tool for oilfield service providers and oilfield service equipment manufacturers that consider Uzbekistan's market as part of their business growth plans.

Why did Russia create a drilling control center?

The creation of the Drilling Control Center was made possible through a strategic partnership with Russia's Gazprom Neft. The agreement to establish the center was signed in the fall of 2023. This collaboration is part of Uzbekneftegaz's commitment to implementing directives from the Head of State to modernize the country's energy sector.
